

world's rarest tortoises to Asian and European collectors; poachers kill and roast scores of lemurs for restaurants; and armed loggers brazenly plunder protected forests, looting dwindling hardwoods for furniture. These activities not only deny locals access to basic resources, they also degrade the country's thriving eco-tourism industry which brought in almost $400 million last year.

The United States has condemned this current government and suspended all nonhumanitarian aid and terminated assistance through a Millennium Development Corporation compact. The World Wildlife Fund, Conservation International and the Wildlife Conservation Society have all denounced the subsequent wholesale exploitation of some of the world's most diverse forests and the decimation of the local people's resources and livelihood.

As the World Forestry Congress convenes this week, we have an excellent opportunity to raise awareness to stop rampant illegal logging and the harvesting of species. I am pleased that the United States Forest Service chief specifically referenced our resolution, H. Res. 839, during his address to the Forestry Congress as an example of United States commitment. The international community, all of us, must engage before it's too late for these protected species and do all we can to prevent the irreparable harm caused by illegal logging.

This resolution condemns the ongoing tragedy and calls for the restoration of the rule of law and shows that the Federal Government will fight to help the people of Madagascar protect these resources.

I hope my colleagues will join me in cosponsoring House Resolution 839 so that the House can do its part to stop this outrage.

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. SALAZAR) at 2 p.m.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:

Together let us thank God for another day of life. Lord, we are truly gifted with another opportunity to praise and thank You for our many blessings. By our being truly present to others today by our work in public service on behalf of others, Lord, may we lift up their spirits and provide some hope to those most in need.

Open our eyes, Lord, to see Your wonders that surround us. May a faith vision shape our priority of issues demanding our attention and may honest responsibility reveal just how much ability we have to respond to all Your people and the common good of the Nation.

Open our hearts, Lord, that we may trust the wisdom shared and the faith witnessed when we truly listen to one another. May each of us draw closer to one another and so strengthen the union of these United States and give You the glory both now and forever.

Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. ADLER) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. ADLER of New Jersey led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

GUN CONTROL

(Mr. POE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. POE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, the Supreme Court said last year that the Second Amendment means what it says: "The right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." There is nothing vague about that personal right. Never mind, Chicago still has a gun ban law.

So the Supreme Court agreed to hear a case where those who believe in liberty are challenging the Chicago antigun law. Gun Grabbers pass a gun ban claiming it reduces crime, but crime actually goes up in banishment areas. So this is not about crime.

The antigun lobby steals individual freedom under the false pretext of providing security by government. In reality, these people want more government intrusion into our personal lives. Obliteration of the Second Amendment is one of the most intrusive methods they use. Gun control is really government control.

The Second Amendment was, among other things, originally designed to protect people against tyranny. Thomas Jefferson said, "Those who hammer their guns into plows will plow for those who do not."

The right to bear arms should apply even in Chicago, whether the paranoid gun control crowd likes it or not.

And that's just the way it is.

DEMOCRATS' HEALTH CARE PLAN WILL KILL JOBS

(Mr. BOEHNER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BOEHNER. Mr. Speaker, having run a small business, I know what it's like to meet a payroll and offer health care benefits to my employees. I know what it's like to create jobs for families struggling to make ends meet. I also understand the consequences for small businesses when Washington imposes higher taxes, new government mandates, and more red tape.

Americans know that small businesses are the engine of job creation in their communities; government is not. And more than ever before, small businesses need solutions from Washington that help create jobs and provide quality, affordable health care for their employees.

Republicans have been offering those solutions all year long: solutions like allowing small business to join together to get health insurance at lower rates—the same way that large businesses and labor unions do today; promoting wellness and expanded health savings accounts to provide additional flexibility to small businesses; and ending junk lawsuits to lower health care costs for small businesses and all Americans.

Under the Democrats' costly government-run plan, however, health care costs are going to go up and countless small business jobs will be destroyed as a result. At the heart of the Democrats' plan is a massive tax increase which will fall most heavily on entrepreneurs that run small businesses. It also includes the harsh mandate that requires employers to provide health insurance or face a steep tax.

It will kill jobs, plain and simple.

HONORING THE SERVICE OF LANCE CORPORAL ALFONSO OCHOA, JR.

(Mr. COSTA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the service of Lance Corporal Alfonso Ochoa, Jr., who was recently killed by a roadside bomb in Afghanistan.

A native of Armona, California, Alfonso joined the Marine Corps only after graduating early from Hanford High School. His enthusiasm for his country and his commitments were apparent to all who knew him. It is my hope that Alfonso's strength, valor, and pride in our Nation will serve as an example for all of us.

My thoughts are with his father and mother, as well as his wife, whom he just married 6 months ago, and go out on behalf of all Americans.

In addition, Mr. Speaker, I would also like to mention that two other
